

ANNOUNCEMENTS

“FORMING INTENTIONAL DISCIPLES” is a new “concept” started by our Bishop. By Dec 1, 2018 Holy Rosary needs to have a “committee” of 5 members who are willing to read a book (will be provided) and learn more about this endeavor. Please see Charo so sign up!

7 The Knights of Columbus is hosting a Diaper Drive-Please bring Today.

Catholic Charities would like to join Holy Rosary in starting a Food Pantry here at Holy Rosary. Volunteers will be needed to help orchestrate this venture. Consider if this is something the parish would be interested in. Please see Charo for more details.

There will be a second collection on today for the Catholic Campaign for Human Development. With your gift, you help community organizations change existing structures of poverty and build an economy based on justice and the dignity of the human person. Thank you.

Please visit www.sacredheartattiesburg.com to see the letter from the Bishop. The US bishops are joining together in a commitment of prayer and reparation leading up to the bishops' general assembly, where we will be making critical decisions in response to the clergy of sexual abuse crisis. A copy of the letter is also available in the vestibule.

Let's start planning our Christmas Dinner! Let's choose a date.

HOLY ROSARY CATHOLIC CHURCH

November 18, 2018

How omnious, yet hopeful Jesus' words to his disciples are! Darkness will follow the tribulation. The Son of Man will come with power and glory to gather his chosen ones from all directions. Both heaven and earth will pass away, but Jesus' words will not. Our hope is in the word for it tells of our salvation in Jesus. When all this will take place, we do not know. We must be vigilant each day.

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE
 November 18, 2018 33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

As we edge closer to the closing of the liturgical year, the Church selects readings that remind us of the final close: the second coming of Christ. It's easy, perhaps, to forget that this is a dogma of our Catholic faith. We see this dramatic end times language in today's Gospel. "The sun will be darkened ... and the stars will be falling from the sky."

As Christians and as human beings, we know all things will come to an end. "But of that day or hour, no one knows." The "end of the world" and end of time at Jesus' coming is in a future unknown. But God has given us beautiful reminders of this truth. We see the signs and symbols of ending all around us -- nightfall at the end of each day; the life cycle of crops coming alive, bearing fruit, and being harvested; our own death. That, too, will come at an unknown day and hour. But that is the way of things. Even as God created in Genesis, He gave us a sense of time -- the sun rising and setting, a beginning and an end -- to mark our days.

So how do we welcome these built-in forms of measurement? Do we take time to quietly recollect at the end of each day? Do we see every morning as a fresh start for mercies new? Do we observe the seasons and reflect on what they might be speaking to us of God and His glory? "Heaven and earth will pass away, but my works will not pass away." The little beginnings and little ends are opportunities to renew our faith in Jesus, if only we have the eyes to see!
