YOU'RE INVITED

Parish Brunch is next weekend, November 19th after Mass. Bring a dish and invite someone to Mass and have them join us afterward for some great Holy Rosary Fellowship & Hospitality. We love our monthly brunch! It is an important part of the fabric of life here at Holy Rosary.

SPECIAL COLLECTION

A special collection will be taken up this weekend for Puerto Rico and the Church in the Caribbean. The six dioceses of Puerto Rico have experienced significant devastation and funds collected for Hurricane Maria victims will be used to support the reconstruction and pastoral needs of the Church as well as humanitarian and recovery assistance.

32ND THSUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Today's Gospel is the parable of the foolish and wise virgins. It is a parable about the kingdom of heaven and who will enter and who will be left outside the door wanting entrance. The five wise virgins have oil for their lamps and the five foolish do not. The wise do not share their oil, fearing they will not have enough for themselves, leading us to wonder whether they responded appropriately or not to the foolish virgins. Ultimately, Jesus' point in telling the parable is for us to be prepared to enter the kingdom of heaven. Will the Lord know us? Will we know the Lord:

32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

"But the wise brought flasks of oil with their lamps." The foolish versus the wise. Today's parable sets these two groups in stark contrast to one another. Two crowds of young women wait for a wedding feast. One group comes prepared for the unexpected, the other just assumes everything will go according to schedule. But it doesn't! The Bridegroom is late, and the foolish virgins are left out in the dark--literally--while the wise ones enjoy the feast inside.

The lesson here is not just about having foresight and gathering the corresponding equipment. It's about being ready for the second coming of Christ. Jesus himself is the "Bridegroom." Traditionally we refer to the Church as the "Bride of Christ" and we, as the people of God who constitute the Church, are even now awaiting the real feast, the culmination of time when Jesus returns. But are we standing among the wise or the foolish as we wait?

Jesus tells us today, "Stay awake, for you know neither the day nor the hour." Are we spiritually awake? Do we have extra oil to see us through, or are we hitting the bottom of the barrel and running on spiritual fumes so to speak? Do we think it's enough to do the bare minimum as we wait for Christ--stepping into church without really being present, or calling ourselves Christian without really taking up the challenge of the cross? In order to avoid standing outside the feast with the foolish, we will want to make sure we fill our flasks with oil or, in other words, fill our hearts with the love of God, fill our minds with his word and his teachings, and fill our souls with the virtues that unite us to his will. If we stock up on these important supplies, we can count ourselves among the wise!
